Dear Tim:

Realizing that your deadline has arrived and that you do not yet have any material from me, I am sending the inclosed information immediately. I do hope that the comments on the Charleston meeting and the news on the membership are not too late to be used.

Should there be some notice of Scott Rawnsley's death. To me it seems an inappropriate thing to mention in the column, and I did not really know him or anything about his death. I hate for it to be ignored. Perhaps a notice elsewhere in the issue would be a good thing.

Sincerely,

Joseph Cross, Briefs Editor
